Men@Work and Women@Work Clothing Closets

DenverWorks has outfitted over 4,000 jobseekers since 1996. We can continue this vital service to the low income and unemployed of Denver with your help.

What – We accept professional and casual work attire for men and women. This season, our greatest need is Men's and Women's jeans, Men's casual pants, Men's and Women's T-shirts in good condition (for layering against the cold), Men's and Women's Winter coats, gloves, scarfs, boots and any other cold weather accessories.

For Men:

Casual work attire – khakis, gently-used jeans, cold weather shirts, sweaters
Shoes and work boots
Winter coats and accessories
New underwear, new socks (white, dress, and cold weather socks)
New toiletries – razors, toothbrushes, toothpaste, deodorant

For Women:

Professional work attire – suits, dresses, pants, blouses, cardigans
Casual work attire – khakis, gently-used jeans, shirts
Winter boots, gloves, scarves, cold weather accessories
Shoes – dress and casual
Coats – in season only
Accessories – belts, purses, jewelry
New underwear and pantyhose
New toiletries – feminine products, toothpaste, deodorant, make-up

Please follow these simple guidelines when donating clothing:

Please have items clean, pressed, and on hangers – ready for our clients to wear to a job interview

When – November 7th - December 7th

Where – Pura Vida 2nd Floor Lobby. Please ask any of the Guest Service Representatives for help.

Why – Pura Vida is partnering with DenverWorks to make a difference in the lives of low income and unemployed jobseekers. You will also receive a receipt for your tax-deductible gift when you drop off your clothing. (Since DenverWorks cannot itemize or assign value to the clothing, please determine its value before donating.)
